§ 31.01 Intent and Purpose

(A) The purpose of this Chapter is to set forth the authority and responsibility of the Board of County Commissioners, County Manager, Emergency Management Coordinator and Emergency Management Agency in the prevention of, preparation for, response to and recovery from natural or man-made disasters or hostile military or paramilitary action and to:

- (1) Reduce vulnerability of people and property of the County to damage, injury, and loss of life and property;
- (2) Prepare for prompt and efficient rescue, care and treatment of threatened or affected persons;
- (3) Provide for the rapid and orderly rehabilitation of persons and restoration of property; and
- (4) Provide for cooperation and coordination of activities relating to emergency and disaster mitigation, preparedness, response and recovery among agencies and officials of this County and with similar agencies and officials of other Counties, Municipalities, State and federal governments, with interstate organizations and with other private and quasi-official organizations.

(B) This article will not relieve any county department of the legal responsibilities or authority given to it in the county Charter or by local chapters, nor will it adversely affect the work of any volunteer agency organized for relief in disaster emergencies.

(C) To the extent not specifically enumerated herein, all authorities and powers conferred on the County pursuant to Chapter 166A and Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the North Carolina General Statutes, and all similar provisions of state and federal law, are incorporated herein by reference.

(D) This article shall apply to any municipality upon specific request of the governing body of the municipality and consent of the Alexander County Board of Commissioners through an interlocal agreement pursuant to N.C.G.S. Chapter 160A, Article 20. In such event, the Emergency

CHAPTER 31- ALEXANDER COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ORDINANCE

Management Coordinator shall have the same powers and duties with respect to the municipality as he/she does for the County.

§ 31.02 Alexander County Emergency Management Agency

In accordance with N.C.G.S. 166A-19.15 the County governing body is responsible for all emergency management activities within its borders, including the municipalities therein. The Alexander County Emergency Management Agency [hereinafter “the Agency”] is hereby established and is designated as the County agency responsible for all emergency management activities within and on behalf of the County, including but not limited to those activities provided for in the chapter. The Agency shall be the agency through which the Alexander County Board of Commissioners exercises the authority and discharges the responsibilities vested in it during disasters and states of emergency. The Agency shall also be the coordinating agency for all activity connected with emergency management, including activities within municipalities if requested.

§ 31.03 Definitions

The following words, terms, and phrases, when used in this Chapter, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

- (1) Attack means direct or indirect assault against the county, its government, its environs, or of the nation, by forces of a hostile nation or the agents thereof, including assault by bombing, conventional or nuclear, chemical or biological warfare, terrorism, or sabotage.
- (2) County Chairperson means the Chairperson of the Alexander County Board of Commissioners.
- (3) Emergency Management Coordinator means the coordinator of the Alexander County emergency management agency, appointed as prescribed in this chapter.
- (4) Disaster means an occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any naturally occurring meteorological or geological phenomena, accidents, failures, and threats to public health, including explosions, technological and cyber failures, transportation and radiological accidents, diseases and pandemics, the release of chemical or other hazardous materials, deliberate and coordinated acts of violence, riots, foreign and domestic terrorism, and military or paramilitary activities, and impending or actual calamity endangering or threatening to endanger health, life or property of the constituted government.
- (5) Emergency Management means the basic government functions of maintaining public peace, health, and safety during an emergency. This term includes prevention against and plans and preparations for protection, relief, and recovery from the effects of an attack by the forces of an enemy nation or the agents thereof or a disaster as defined in this section. It shall not, however, include any activity that is the primary responsibility of the military forces of the United States.
- (6) Emergency Management Personnel means all employees of Alexander County and municipal governments within Alexander County, their departments, boards, institutions, councils, agents, representatives, contractors and subcontractors who are participating in emergency management activities.
- (7) Local Emergency Planning Committee is a committee formed by the County Commissioners to facilitate emergency management coordination and cooperation of all political jurisdictions and agencies, both public and private, within Alexander County.
- (8) Regulations mean plans, programs and other emergency procedures deemed essential to emergency management.
- (9) State of Emergency (or State of Disaster) means the condition that exists whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, and which constitutes a significant threat to public health, safety, and welfare whether actual or imminent.

(10) Volunteer means contributing a service, equipment, or facilities to the emergency management agency without remuneration.

§ 31.04 Organization and Appointments

The emergency management organization shall consist of the following:

- (1) An agency of emergency management under the direction of the board of commissioners. The head of the county emergency management agency shall be known as the Coordinator, and such assistants and other employees as are deemed necessary for the proper functioning of the agency will be appointed.
- (2) The employees and resources of all county departments, boards, institutions, and councils shall participate in emergency management activities. Duties assigned to county departments shall be the same as or similar to the normal duties of the department, where possible.
- (3) Volunteer personnel and agencies offering service to and accepted by the county.
- (4) The Board of Commissioners shall appoint a Coordinator of the County Emergency Management Agency who shall be a person well versed and trained in operations involving the activities of many different agencies which will operate to protect the public health, safety, and welfare if danger occurs from enemy action or disaster as defined in this article.
- (5) The coordinator shall designate and appoint deputy coordinators to assume the emergency duties of the coordinator in his/her absence or inability to act.

§ 31.05 Duties and Responsibilities

The Chairperson of the Board of County Commissioners shall have the authority to independently exercise the following duties and responsibilities after reasonable attempts to convene a meeting of the full Board of County Commissioners have proven unsuccessful.

- (1) Exercise general direction and control of the County Emergency Management program and shall be responsible for carrying out the provisions within this local chapter, Chapter 166A of the North Carolina General Statutes, and all other applicable local, state, and federal laws.
- (2) Make, amend, or rescind the necessary orders, rules, proclamations, and regulations within the limits of the authority conferred upon him/her herein, with due consideration of the laws and policies of the state and federal government.
- (3) Delegate any authority vested in him/her under this chapter and to provide for the sub-delegation of any such authority.
- (4) Cooperate and coordinate with the Governor and the heads of the departments and agencies of the state and federal government, with other appropriate state officers and agencies, and with the officers and agencies of other local units of government in matters pertaining to the emergency management of the County.
- (5) Utilize the services, equipment, supplies, and facilities of existing departments, offices, and agencies of the County and the political subdivisions thereof. The officers and personnel of all such departments, offices, and agencies are required to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the Chairperson upon request. This authority shall extend to a state of disaster, imminent threat of disaster, or emergency management planning and training purposes.
- (6) Sell, lend, lease, give, transfer, or deliver materials or perform services for disaster purposes on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by any existing law.

CHAPTER 31- ALEXANDER COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ORDINANCE

- (7) Use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate to provide relief and assistance from the effects of a disaster, and to reallocate such other funds as may reasonably be available within the appropriations of the various departments when the severity and magnitude of such disaster so require and the contingency and emergency funds are insufficient or inappropriate.

The County Manager shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (1) Be responsible to the Board of County Commissioners for emergency management activities.
- (2) Activate County plans applicable to the areas in question and authorize and direct the deployment of other County resources, supplies, employees, and equipment as necessary pursuant to this Chapter or any other provision of law.
- (3) Implement this chapter.
- (4) Exercise additional authority, duties, and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Board of County Commissioner.

These duties may be sub-delegated to the Emergency Management Coordinator as appropriate.

The Emergency Management Coordinator shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (1) Be responsible to the County Manager regarding all phases of emergency management activity.
- (2) Maintain liaison with the state and federal authorities and the authorities of other political subdivisions to ensure the most effective operation of the emergency operations plan.
- (3) Coordinate the recruitment of volunteer personnel and agencies to augment the personnel and facilities of the county for emergency management purposes.
- (4) Develop and coordinate plans for the immediate use of all facilities, equipment, manpower, and other resources of the county for the purpose of minimizing or preventing damage to persons and property; and protecting and restoring to usefulness governmental services and public utilities necessary for the public health, safety, and welfare.
- (5) Negotiate and conclude agreements with owners or persons in control of buildings or other property for the use of such buildings or other property for emergency management purposes and designating suitable buildings as public shelters.
- (6) Through public informational programs, educate the populace as to actions necessary and required for the protection of their persons and property in a disaster, either impending or present.
- (7) Maintain a County Emergency Operations Plan approved by the Local Emergency Planning Committee and Board of County Commissioners, as well as comply with State and Federal emergency management requirements.
- (8) Conduct training and exercises to ensure the efficient operation of the emergency management forces and to familiarize residents with emergency management regulations, procedures, and operations.
- (9) Coordinate the activity of all other public and private agencies engaged in any emergency management activities by serving as the active Chairperson of the Local Emergency Planning Committee.

§ 31.06 County Emergency Operation Plan

- (1) Comprehensive emergency operation plans shall be adopted and maintained by resolution of the Board of Commissioners. In the preparation of these plans, as they pertain to county organization, it is intended that the services, equipment, facilities, and personnel of all existing departments and agencies shall be utilized to the fullest extent. When approved, it shall be the duty of all departments and agencies to perform the functions assigned by these plans and to maintain their portions of the plans in a current state of readiness at all times. These plans shall have the effect of law whenever a disaster, as defined in this chapter, has been proclaimed.

- (2) The coordinator shall prescribe in the emergency plans those positions within the disaster organization, in addition to his/her own, for which lines of succession are necessary. In each instance, the responsible person will designate and keep on file with the coordinator a current list of three persons as successors to his/her position. The list will be in order of succession and will nearly as possible designate persons best capable of carrying out all assigned duties and functions.
- (3) Each department/agency head assigned responsibility in the plans shall be responsible for carrying out all duties and functions assigned therein. Duties will include the organization and training of assigned employees and, where needed, volunteers. Each head shall formulate the standing operating procedure to implement the plans for his/her service.
- (4) Amendments to these plans shall be submitted to the coordinator. If approved, the coordinator will then submit the amendments to the Board of Commissioners with his/her recommendation for its approval.
- (5) When a required competency or skill for a disaster function is not available within the government, the coordinator is authorized to seek assistance from persons outside of the government. The assignment of duties, when of a supervisory nature, shall also include the delegation of authority for the persons so assigned to carry out such duties prior to, during, and after the occurrence of a disaster. Such services from persons outside of government may be accepted by local government on a volunteer basis. Such citizens shall be enrolled as emergency management volunteers.
- (6) The coordinator is authorized to enter into Mutual Aid agreements with other counties, municipalities, and other public or private agencies for the purpose of providing supplies, equipment, personnel, and/or services. Such agreements will be coordinated with the County Manager to ensure other directives, compensation, and laws are complied with therein.

§ 31.07 Declaration of County Disaster

- (1) Pursuant to N.C.G.S. 166A-19.22 and Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the North Carolina General Statutes, the existence of a state of disaster may be proclaimed by the County Chairperson without public notice or by a resolution of the Board of County Commissioners in an emergency meeting if a disaster threatens or exists.
- (2) If a County state of emergency is proclaimed, the County Manager or Emergency Management Coordinator shall provide the Board of County Commissioners with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available. Municipalities therein may proclaim individual disasters upon request of their respective Mayor per G.S. 166A-19.22
- (3) A proclamation or resolution declaring or terminating a County state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly to the attention of the general public and all other entities therein.
- (4) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the County Manager by local law, during a state of disaster, the County Manager shall have the following powers, with the authority to sub-delegate all or part of these powers to the Emergency Management Coordinator:
 - (A) To utilize all available County resources as reasonably necessary to cope with an emergency, including the transfer and direction of personnel or functions of County agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services;
 - (B) To take such action and give such directions to law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this chapter and with the orders, rules and regulations made pursuant thereto;

CHAPTER 31- ALEXANDER COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ORDINANCE

- (C) To take steps to assure that measures, including the installation of public utilities, are taken when necessary to qualify for temporary housing assistance from the federal government when that assistance is required to protect the public health, welfare, and safety;
 - (D) To relieve any public official having administrative responsibilities under this chapter of such responsibilities for willful failure to obey an order, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter.
 - (E) To direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the County, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of a disaster area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.
 - (F) To establish a system of economic controls over all resources, materials, and services including food, clothing, shelter, fuel, rents, and wages, including the administration and enforcement of any rationing, price freezing, or similar state/federal order or regulation;
 - (G) To regulate and control the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, the congregation of persons in public places or buildings, lights and noises of all kinds, and the maintenance, extension, and operation of public utility and transportation services and facilities;
 - (H) To waive a provision of any regulation or chapter of a County agency or a political subdivision that restricts the immediate relief of humansuffering;
 - (I) To perform and exercise such other functions, powers, and duties as are necessary to promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population;
 - (J) To procure, by purchase, condemnation, seizure, or by other means to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate, or distribute materials and facilities for emergency management without regard to the limitation of any existing law.
- (5) A state of emergency declared pursuant to this Chapter, and all prohibitions and restrictions imposed as a result of the declaration shall be established by written proclamation duly executed by the Chairman or the Chairman's designee, and shall remain in effect until such time as the proclamation is amended or rescinded in the same manner. The proclamation shall include a listing of all restrictions and prohibitions imposed and, where applicable, the date and time on which such restrictions and prohibitions become effective.
- (6) At such time as a state of emergency is declared, the Emergency Operation Plan, all standard operating procedures adopted pursuant to the Plan, and all applicable mutual aid agreements and other similar agreements and compacts shall be activated.
- (7) Any proclamation declaring the existence of a state of emergency, and all restrictions and prohibitions imposed as a result of the declaration, shall apply in all areas of Alexander County unless otherwise specified in the proclamation.

§ 31.08 Hazardous Materials and Substances

- (A) Definitions
The following words, phrases, and terms when used in this Section, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this Section and applicable regulations of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the North Carolina Department of Environmental Quality, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning.
- Hazardous material:
Any substance that, when discharged in any quantity, may present an imminent and substantial danger to the public health or welfare or to the environment.

CHAPTER 31- ALEXANDER COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ORDINANCE

Having control over:

Shall mean, but not limited to any person using, transferring, storing, or transporting a hazardous material immediately before release of such hazardous material onto the land or into the air or the waters of the county.

Hazardous material response:

The sending of fire department/emergency management or its agent(s), personnel, or equipment to abate, control, or remedy the spread of hazardous materials that endanger the health or safety of persons or the environment.

Person: includes individuals, firms, partnerships, associations, institutions, corporations, local governments, and governmental agencies.

(B) Purpose and Activity

(1) The Alexander County Emergency Management Coordinator or their designee shall have the authority to summarily abate, remedy, or control the spread of hazardous materials that are emitted into the environment in such a manner as to endanger the health or safety of the general public or the environment.

(2) The Alexander County Emergency Management Coordinator or their designee shall have the authority to enter public or private property, with or without the owner's consent, to respond to such hazardous materials emergencies.

(3) The Alexander County Emergency Management Coordinator or their designee shall determine the type, amount, and quantity of equipment and personnel required to adequately abate, remedy or control the spread of all hazardous materials that are emitted into the environment.

(C) Responsibility

The property owner and/or the person exercising control over the hazardous materials that create the hazardous materials emergency shall be held financially liable for the response, abatement, control, and remedial costs incurred by Alexander County or its agent(s) during the emergency. The property owner and/or the person exercising control over such hazardous material shall assist Alexander County or its agent(s) in abatement, removal, control, and remedial measures associated with the hazardous material emergency. Assistance shall consist of any or all of the following:

(1) Comply with the direction of the Alexander County Emergency Management Coordinator;

(2) Supply emergency response plan information for the site.

(3) Supply emergency response equipment, personnel, and materials available on the site.

(D) Fees and Charges

The fees and charges for hazardous materials emergency response on behalf of Alexander County or its agent(s) shall be established by the Board of County Commissioners of Alexander County from time to time and outlined in the Alexander County Manual of Fees and Charges, a copy of which shall be maintained in the office of the Alexander County Emergency Management Coordinator and the Alexander County Finance Office, and shall contain a schedule of types and amounts of charges authorized.

(E) Payment of Costs

(1) Upon completion of response to a hazardous materials emergency by Alexander County or its agent(s) under the provisions of this Section, the County shall thereupon mail or deliver to the owner of and/or the person having control over the hazardous materials that created the emergency a bill covering the costs of response, including but not limited to abatement, remediation, control, and removal.

(2) As provided for in Section 153A-140 of the General Statutes, the amount of the bill shall become a lien upon such property, land, or premises where the hazardous materials emergency arose, and if not paid within thirty (30) days, shall be collected in the same manner as provided for the collection of delinquent or unpaid taxes.

§ 31.09 Fees and Charges for Hazardous Materials Response

The charges for hazardous materials emergency response on behalf of Alexander County or its agent(s) shall be based upon a unified fee schedule that has been agreed upon by a committee of all applicable agencies and approved by the Board of County Commissioners. It is the responsibility of each agency/department/office to bill for fees and charges rendered during the emergency.

§ 31.10 Liability and Immunity

- (1) This Chapter is an exercise by the county of its governmental functions for the protection of the public peace, health, and safety, and neither the county nor agents and representatives of the county or any individual, receiver, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or trustee or any of the agents thereof in good faith carrying out, complying with or attempting to comply with any order, rule, proclamation, or regulation promulgated pursuant to this Chapter shall be liable for any damage sustained to persons or property as the result of such activity.
- (2) Any person owning or controlling real estate or other premises who voluntarily and without compensation grants the county the right to inspect, designate, and use the whole or any part of such real estate or premises for the purpose of sheltering persons during an actual, impending or practice disaster situation shall not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any persons on or about such real estate or premises under such license, privilege or other permission or for loss of or damage to the property of such person.
- (3) All functions hereunder and all other activities relating to emergency management are hereby declared to be governmental functions. Neither the State or County nor any political subdivision thereof, nor, except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any emergency management worker complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this Chapter or any order, rule, proclamation, or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter or pursuant to any chapter relating to any emergency management measures enacted by any political subdivision of the State, shall be liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property as a result of any such activity.

§ 31.11 Severability.

Should any provision of this Chapter, or the application thereof to any person or circumstances be declared invalid for any reason, such declaration shall not affect the validity of any other provisions of this Chapter, it being the legislative intent that the provisions of this Chapter shall be severable and remain valid notwithstanding such declaration.

§ 31.12 Violations

Unless otherwise provided for by law, it shall be a Class 3 misdemeanor for any person to violate any of the provisions of this Chapter, proclamations, or plans issued pursuant to the authority contained in this Chapter, or to willfully obstruct, hinder or delay any member of the emergency management organization in the enforcement of this Chapter or any proclamations or plans issued pursuant to this Chapter.

CHAPTER 31- ALEXANDER COUNTY EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ORDINANCE

§ 31.13 Conflicting Chapters, Orders, Rules and Regulations Suspended.

At all times when the orders, rules, and regulations made and promulgated according to this Chapter shall be in effect, they shall supersede all existing chapters, orders, rules, and regulations insofar as the latter may be inconsistent therewith.

§ 31.14 County Commissioners' Adoption

Upon motion made by Commissioner Reese and seconded by Commissioner Herman, the above Ordinance was unanimously adopted this 3rd day of June, 2024

Chairman, Alexander County Board of Commissioners
