

Electioneering and Political Signs

There are numerous regulations and ordinances regarding political signs, campaigning, and electioneering. Political Parties, Candidates, and their Committees are encouraged to review these regulations to ensure compliance.

Political Signs

Political signs are protected from being damaged or removed

Refer to NC GS §14-384 and NC GS §136-32 \(e\),

By State Law, political signs are allowed in the State highway right of way starting 30 days before early voting begins and must be removed on the 10th day after the election.

You must obtain permission of any property owner fronting the right of way where a sign would be placed.

Signs must be placed in accordance with the following:

- (1) No sign shall be permitted in the right-of-way of a fully controlled access highway.
- (2) No sign shall be closer than three feet from the edge of the pavement of the road.
- (3) No sign shall obscure motorist visibility at an intersection.
- (4) No sign shall be higher than 42 inches above the edge of the pavement of the road.
- (5) No sign shall be larger than 864 square inches.
- (6) No sign shall obscure or replace another sign.

Refer to NCGS § 136-32

No sign shall be attached to any utility pole or utility boxes and equipment Refer to GS § 14-156

Alexander County Zoning Ordinance Regarding Political Signs

Temporary Political Signs do not require a sign permit. The following additional requirements apply:

- Sign must be located entirely on private property
- Sign must not cause an obstruction of vision
- The sign must be less than 32 square feet
- The sign must be removed within 14 days after the election

Refer to Alexander County Zoning Ordinance 154.113

Town of Taylorsville Zoning Ordinance Regarding Political Signs

Temporary political signs do not require a sign permit. The following additional restrictions apply:

- Signs must be removed within 3 days following the election
- No such sign may exceed 16 square feet in surface area

Refer to Town of Taylorsville Zoning Ordinance 151.50.04

Sign Placement at Polling Locations

No signs are allowed within 50 feet of any voting place entrance. Please refer to the buffer zone handout for additional information on the buffer zone at each voting place.

Property Owners of several polling locations have specific rules on sign placement:

Bethlehem 1 Precinct voting place located at Shiloh Lutheran Church – No signs allowed on property

Ellendale Precinct voting place located at St. Luke Lutheran Church – No signs allowed on property

Wittenburg precinct voting place located at Friendship Lutheran Church – No signs allowed on property

We are guests at all of our polling places, and we need your help for us to remain welcome. We ask that you adhere to these requests and arrange to clear the polling places and surrounding premises of all election materials as soon as possible following the election.

Electioneering

Buffer Zone - North Carolina General Statute § 163A-1134 states that “no person or group of persons shall hinder access, harass others, distribute campaign literature, place political advertising, solicit votes, or otherwise engage in election-related activity in the voting place or in a buffer zone which shall be prescribed by the county board of elections. In determining the dimensions of that buffer zone for each voting place, the county board of elections shall, where practical, set the limit at 50 feet from the door of the entrance of the voting place.” Poll workers will mark buffer zones on Election Day with signs, chalk, tape, or other materials supplied by the Alexander County Board of Elections
