

NOTICE OF MUNICIPAL ELECTION
ALEXANDER COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

A Municipal Election will be held on Tuesday, November 5, 2019, in Alexander County to vote in the following contests: Town of Taylorsville Mayor and Town of Taylorsville Board of Commissioners. Only voters who reside within the Town of Taylorsville are qualified to vote in this election. These voters must have resided within the town limits of Taylorsville on or before October 6, 2019.

The Alexander Senior Center will be the only voting place open on Election Day, Tuesday, November 5th. This location will be open on Election Day 6:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. One-stop early voting will be held at the Alexander County Board of Elections Office. Early Voting will be available Wednesday, October 16 through Friday, November 1. Early voting hours are 8am to 5pm on weekdays and 8am to 1pm on Saturday, October 26. Canvass will be held in the Alexander County Board of Elections Office at 11:00 a.m. on Friday, November 15.

Absentee voting by mail is available. Requests for an absentee ballot must be made on an absentee request form (available at ncsbe.gov and at the county board of elections office), and must be received in the Alexander County Board of Elections Office by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday, October 29. Absentee voting requires the voter to complete an application on the return envelope that must be witnessed by two qualified persons or a notary public. Completed absentee ballots must be returned to the Alexander County Board of Elections by 5:00 p.m. on Election Day (ballots received by mail after this time will be timely if received within three business days and postmarked by Election Day). Voters may receive assistance voting a mail-in absentee ballot from a qualified person of their choice. If the voter lives in a facility such as a nursing home, and the voter's near relative or legal guardian is not available, the voter or the facility can arrange to have the county board of elections schedule a visit by a Multipartisan Assistance Team to provide assistance and serve as witnesses.

All persons who are registered to vote with the Alexander County Board of Elections and reside within the town limits of Taylorsville are eligible to vote in this election. Persons who are not already registered to vote in the county and reside within the town limits of Taylorsville must register by Friday, October 11, to be eligible to vote in this election. Voters who are not registered in the county by that deadline may register and vote during one stop early voting only, and will be required to provide documentation of their identity and residence. Voters who wish to change party affiliation, or need to update their name or address must do so by the registration deadline. Voters who fail to timely make a change in name or address in the county must update the information when presenting to vote, and may be required to vote a provisional ballot.

Voters voting in person are entitled to assistance by an election official, or if assistance is needed due to disability or illiteracy, by a qualified person of their choice. Voting sites are accessible to all voters. Curbside voting is available for voters who are not able to enter voting sites.

Persons with questions about registration, polling places, early voting, absentee ballots, a Multipartisan Assistance Team visit to a facility, or other election matters may call the Alexander County Board of Elections Office at 828-632-2990.
