The Juvenile Crime Prevention Council (JCPC) has studied the risk factors and needs of Juvenile Court involved youth in this county and hereby publishes this Request for Proposals. The JCPC anticipates funds from the NC Dept. of Public Safety in the amount stated above to fund the program types specified below. Such programs will serve delinquent and at-risk youth for the state fiscal year 2019-2020 beginning on, or after, November 1, 2019. The use of these expansion funds in this county WILL NOT REQUIRE A LOCAL MATCH.

The JCPC will consider proposals for the following needed programs:

*Clinical Evaluations	*Mediation/Conflict Resolution	*Temporary Shelter Care
*Psychological Assessments	*Teen Court	*Mentoring
*Substance Abuse Assessments and Treatment	*Vocational Development	*Interpersonal Skill Building
*Sex Offender Evaluations	*Restitution/Community Service	*Parent/Family Skill Building

Proposed program services should target the following risk factors for delinquency or repeat delinquency:

1. Juveniles who associate with other delinquent youth;
2. School Behavior Problems;
3. Parents/Guardians who have difficulty providing adequate supervision;
4. Reduction in Juvenile Recidivism.

Programs should address the following concerns as reported in the Needs Assessments for adjudicated youth:

Peer Domain: Juveniles who associate with others involved in delinquent activity.

Individual Domain: Mental Health services are critical issues in providing assistance to youth and families involved in the juvenile justice system: programs receiving funds shall provide appropriate access to these services.

Family Domain: Parental Support and/or parental enhancement skills needed for court-referred youth. Access services that provide best practices and have the ability to engage families are needed.

School Domain: Youth involved with Juvenile Court have an increased risk of school behavior issues reflected in prolonged absences and suspensions.

Applicants are being sought that are able to address items below:

1. Program services compatible with research that are shown to be effective with juvenile offenders.
2. Program services are outcome-based.
3. The program has an evaluation component.
4. Program services detect gang participation and divert individuals from gang participation.
5. Applicants are encouraged to be innovative and submit proposals that meet multiple program needs.

Local public agencies, 501(c)(3) non-profit corporations and local housing authorities are invited to submit applications to provide services addressing the above elements.
