Honorable Scott H. Hines, the Alexander County Register of Deeds, is now offering a free 24/7/365 service that better protects residents from potential property and mortgage fraud.

It's easy! Here's how to register for PropertyCheck:

1. Create a new account on the website listed above.
2. Create a notification by selecting how to receive them — via text and/or email.
3. Type in the property owner's name for whom you wish to monitor — as the name appears on official documents in the Register of Deeds index.

Alexander County Register of Deeds and PropertyCheck will now automatically alert you of recordings regarding the property you specified via phone or email.
